1600 HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS IN 1978

A prediction of 1600 pupils in Wilmington High School by 1978 was only part of a three hour discussion which received the undivided attention of the School Committee, a greater part of the Finance Committee and other town officials in the Roman House, on Monday evening.

The prediction was part of a 'rough draft' of Phase III of the Wilmington High School survey by the firm of Hill and Associates of Cambridge. It was given by John Miller of that firm.

Included in the study was a prediction that the town would have to have High School facilities in that year which would be about three times larger than the present high school, 226,865 square feet, as compared to the present 80,072. Miller said that the figures would undoubtedly be shaved down.

The present High School has an area of 118 square feet per pupil, and the proposed size of the new facility would give a ratio of 194 square feet per pupil.

Miller reported that five High Schools, built in Massachusetts during 1967 had area ratios ranging from 129 square feet per pupil to 181 square feet per pupil, the 129/ratio being for the largest school, capable of having 2800 pupils.

Miller said that a 1000 seat auditorium would be needed, and that a new Field House capable of seating 1500 persons would also be needed. He made no estimates of costs, but others present did, to a degree, with prices ranging up in the millions of dollars.

During the discussions there were questions as to the feasibility of extending the school year, or the school day or week. One of the ideas bruited about briefly was of 'staggering' the classes so that there would be four groups, each with nine months of study, taking turns, to keep the school filled for twelve months a year. In this case vacations would be staggered, some in summer, some in winter, some in spring and some in fall.

John Brooks of the School Board half answered that question by asking another 'Would the parents of this community consent to school on such a plan?'

Brooks thought that the cost could be about $12 millions, with a cost per square foot being 'certainly over $30'.

A large part of the proposed increase seemed to be for athletic facilities.

Several questions were asked as to the possibility of adding a third story to the present structure. Miller said that the girders across the building at roof level would support a third story, but that the columns supporting those girders were insufficient.

It is becoming quite apparent that the Special Town Meeting which was to be held sometime this spring for the purposes of voting additions to the High School - or a New High School - will instead be held sometime in the fall.

New schools cost money. Bonds have to be voted. The bond for the High School, if it is an addition, will cost several dollars on the tax rate, if that money is voted before the tax rate is set, as was planned.

The problem boils down to a question of whether or not the Principal Assessor will set a tax rate before the town can have that Town Meeting - and further, will the town then appropriate the money out of the 1970 tax rate?

The answer is not clear. But the Principal Assessor has the duty of setting the tax rate as soon as possible. Without a special Town Meeting the rate will probably be $40.00.

Wishing Doesn't Help

Once again this column is going to disagree with the Selectmen's decision, relative to Lowell and Woburn Streets. The Selectmen just will not 'buy' any width of over sixty feet for Lowell Street, and they are not displaying much wisdom in that stand.

With a sixty foot street, in less than a dozen years, there will be monumental traffic jams on Lowell Street - unless our civilization changes abruptly in its style of locomotion, and the great god automobile is dethroned.

To widen Lowell Street, a dozen years from now, will cost real damages. In that time there will be other structures, on the corners. The economics of owning that land will force more construction.

Just wishing doesn't help - and that is what the Board of Selectmen is doing.

Wet Land Zoning

Nearly every week, ever so briefly, the Planning Board wonders out loud for a few seconds on what to do about the wetlands of Wilmington. Sometimes the members speculate on whether or not they should go to the Selectmen for their thoughts. At other times they figuratively shrug their shoulders.

The members cannot understand why more than 800 residents, in the 701 Survey, were in favor of Conservancy, and then the Town Meeting overwhelmingly defeated the proposal that was presented.

One clue is clear - the remarks of Milton Cram of Lawrence Street, in the Town Meeting. Mr. Cram told the meeting that he was very much in favor, but was going to vote against. 'Let the Planning Board go back and study it (Conservancy) some more!'

There are three kinds of wetlands, at least, in Wilmington.

First, there are the peat bogs, which line the streams, and are to be found in other places too.

Secondly there are the 'hard-pan' areas, which in former days were cultivated by the farmers, as hop fields, or hay fields.

Thirdly, there is the 'pot-hole' type of wetland, not very extensive (other than Silver Lake), a type of wetland left by glacial action.

Forget the pot-holes. Concentrate on the first two types.

Let the Planning Board build their conservancy proposals around the peat bogs. This kind of land is really difficult to use, anyway. There is little value, although admittedly the assessors charge all that is possible.

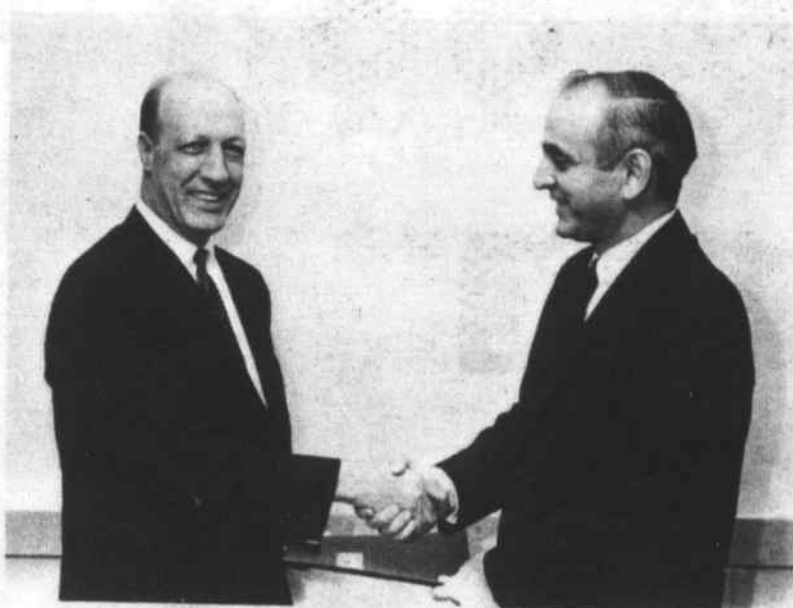

For the 'hard-pan' areas let there be a new kind of zoning. Call it, perhaps, Wet Land Zoning, Residential.

Let the houseslots in the Wet Land Zoning be perhaps an acre, perhaps more. This will cause the speculative builders to pause and think, before they go ahead with more homes to sell.

Seventy five years ago many homes were built, and successfully, in the 'hard-pan' areas of Wilmington. The old Irish stonemasons knew how to raise the foundations for the homes, and there was no demand for excessive water use, such as there is in this day of automatic washing machines, etc etc.

It is useless to hope that the modern speculatively built home will have behind it the wisdom of those old stonemasons.

Don't destroy the land values, by a Conservancy Act. Just recognize that a special problem does exist, and call the answer Wet Land Residential Zoning, as a clear warning of what may be expected.

Selectmen's Meeting Not Eighty, - Sixty

Wilmington's Selectmen are not interested in having Lowell Street become an eighty foot wide highway.
This was made clear Monday night at the Selectmen's Meeting, when Representative Fred F. Cain principal things in the minds of the Selectmen. The big one was Costs.

The second item that worried the selectmen was the idea of making Lowell Street into a wide

IT IS CHEAPER TO PUT IN AN EIGHTY FOOT STREET NOW;
Than it will ever be again, Rep. Cain tells the Board of Selectmen.
They were not impressed.

appeared to tell of his conversations with the State Department of Public Works. Mr. Cain was the bearer of a message that Lowell Street should be eighty feet wide, at the intersection with Woburn Street, and at that place Woburn Street should be sixty feet wide.

This, he told the Selectmen, would allow for several things which improve the traffic at those four corners.

There would be three lanes of traffic each way on Lowell Street.
One of these, the cars that would want to go left, would swing over behind the islands to be constructed, so as to be out of the way of the other two lanes, and not stop traffic.

At the same time there would be no tie up of cars that wanted to turn right, off Woburn Street onto Lowell Street, or off Lowell Street onto Woburn, no matter from which direction they came.

The Selectmen just couldn't 'buy' the idea. Four of the five were against the idea. Only Chairman James Banda did not vote, nor really come out against the idea.

The issue was complicated by Cain telling of some of the work that has been done, in the planning stage, by the City of Woburn and the State PDW.

Woburn is creating a large industrial park in the norther part of Woburn, and two new highways are being planned.

One of these would go East and West, connecting Main Street in North Woburn with Route 93, possibly, in a new interchange.

The other would go North and South, from Route 128 to Route 129 in Wilmington. If the new North-South road goes through, the State plans to enlarge the Clover-leaf at 93 and 129, to make it a four road cloverleaf instead of the present two-road.

There is a difficulty with the Woburn - State proposals, however, Cain said, in that the new firms building on Industrial Way in South Wilmington are being constructed too fast. Both the Smithcraft and the Market Forge plants are helping to block off any proposed right of way for the new road, proposed by Woburn.

Costs
It seemed that there were two through-way. They seemed to feel (although it was not clearly so said) that widening Lowell Street to eighty feet would attract more traffic than there is at present.

The Cost item was discussed mainly by Boylen. He wanted to know if the State was paying the bill.

Cain told him the state was not 'paying for anything'.

Micell stated that the land for a 60 ft taking was being donated to the town, and if more than that was needed, the Town would have to pay damages, etc. The Selectmen had been instructed to make a 60 ft taking. He asked Cain if they could possibly get by with a 60 ft taking.

Cain thought that if he was instructed to take back a 60 ft decision to them, they would. However, he felt it was shortsighted of the Board.

Boylen seconded Micell's motion that the Board should go on record for a 60 ft intersection and that an 80 ft intersection would improve the traffic flow for the people from out of Town coming in on Rt 93, but it would make it impossible to ever get out of Woodland or Strout Ave.

Town Manager Sterling Morris
explained that Chapter 90 meant $33000 per year of which the Town
had a share of $8500, and added

Town Manager Sterling Morris
explained that Chapter 90 meant $33000 per year of which the Town
had a share of $8500, and added that the Board felt that there was enough land taking this time to widen Lowell St to the 93 interchange, but the neighbors objected at this time. He said this was Phase I of the project, and that 60 ft taking was enough for the residential section of Wilmington.

On the suggestion of Cain, Chairman Banda persuaded the Board to have a meeting with Woburn and the DPW to find out their plans. This is to be held on Wednesday, May 7th, at Nashua Street or Arlington in the evening so that all information can be noted before the Board committed themselves on the motion.

Micell objected strenuously saying that over the years they had talked and talked and always come out with sixty feet for a widening.

Boylen said that all the state was interested in was getting the traffic on and off Rt 93, and that they didn't give one particle of anything for the residents.

He also noted that at no time did the DPW say it had to be widened, until the Board decided it should be widened 34 to 60 ft and then they asked for 80 ft.
He noted that he felt strongly about Micell's motion.

To clarify the motion, Micell stated that he moved 'We go on record directing the DPW that the wishes of the Board of Selectmen is in favor of a 60 ft widening.'
Boylen seconded.

Banda noted they should notify the Department of Public Safety about the lights.

Merrimack Valley Selectmen Association asked for dedication of the week of May 4th for Drug Prevention Week. Micell moved this.

Mr. Scherzi appeared before the Board to ask about the taking by the Town of his mother's land on Grove Avenue. He was told it was in the hands of the Town Counsel. Morris said that there had been errors written in the deed. This set off much speculation as to why we didn't take the land by eminent domain so as to avoid these title conflicts by Boylen.

Morris explained that there were several ways to take the land and this was by agreeable purchase and agreeable sale at the assessed value. Micell said he objected to the sale and wanted it taken by eminent domain, as did Boylen and McDonald. Scherzi gave his address as 4 Bartlett Drive in Wo-burn. The case was referred to the Town Counsel.

Other Business

Carl Gubellini appeared for the Library Trustees to say that the furniture was delivered and that the library would be moving next week with the help of the Girl Scouts. The Trustees hoped that it would be on the new schedule on Monday.

He approved of the Memorial Day Exercise to raise the flag on that day which had been bought back by the Girl Scouts from Washington and which had been presented to them by Brad Morse and which had flown over the capitol.

Banda spoke of the parade from the Cemetery to the Library after the ceremonies at the Cemetery.
The Board asked Gubellini to speak an honor which he declined, saying that he had finished his job, and that he thought it was Memorial Day, more befitting for a veteran or Selectman to speak.

Licenses for Taxis were granted to Wilmington Cab, Anton's Cab and Errand Boy subject to the approval of the Chief of Police.
Permission was granted to the VFW for the sale of Poppies on May 16, 17, and 18.

Banda reminded the Board of a meeting with the By-Law Committee at 8:30 on April 30 and that on May 3rd, there was the DAV installation and the Little League Parade.

Mrs. Russell, the Town Clerk, had requested permission to send a copy of the tape of the Town Meeting, the portion which had to do with the rezoning of Woburn and Lowell Streets, on which there was a question. Boylen made the motion, with McDonald seconding, and the vote was unanimous.

Two citizens of Brentwood Ave appeared with a question of a drain on the property and pictures of the water. Engineer Harding pointed on the large map to a ditch running under Brentwood to the rear of the property into an open ditch then under Woodside Ave. The only way to alleviate it was a pipe to the backyard. He also made a statement that if this one was piped, then the other ditch would have to be piped and that would dump into a neighboring field.

Boyle questioned the Board's right to use tax dollars on private property. McDonald asked for consultation with the Town Counsel and Highway Department. Miceli moved this and McDonald seconded it. Boyle then took time to explain to the taxpayers that 'How we spend money is set by law and we can't misappropriate the town funds,' although all had expressed individually and together the concern for the situation. Miceli said the Board would do anything that they could to expedite it.

A Jury drawing was made for Civil session in Lowell Superior Court of Rodney R. Lawton, 33 Adams Street, and for the Jury Pool in Cambridge Court, Donald B. Hill, 74 Salem Street for June 2.

There was a request from the Town Accountant for $350 to purchase an electric typewriter since they had been using the Board of Health's typewriter, and the Board of Health is moving to the old library. This was recommended to the Finance Committee for action.

New Business

Miceli asked for signs on Grove Avenue to slow down the traffic beyond the DAV Hall on the bend. He also asked that a memo be sent to the Planning Board saying that there were no trees on Charlotte Road. He said that on Nunne and Kelly Roads the street betterment bounds had been changed and this had caused a conflict.

The Town Engineer is requested to make a map available to these people.

Mr. Francis of Carter Lane was referred to the Town Manager with reference to the Town's Land Court action.

Miceli asked that Carter Lane be posted for trucks. He also asked for the closing of the utility road into Barbo's land, and to have it sealed permanently.

McDonald questioned the TM as to the surveying on Chestnut St. Morris said the County was working on it. He also asked that the situation on Butters Row be cleaned up.

Boyle said that the Lake was unfit for swimming on account of the weeds all over the bottom, and asked that the State be notified to de-weed it. He also requested a stop sign at the Adams and Parker Street intersection. Comments were made on the good job being done on Clean Up week.

Banda requested a brief executive session before adjournment.

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, and after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there I'll call you.

Hey, You Gals, Howie LeFaver tells me that you should be oiling up those gloves and polishing up those bats, and he'll be letting you know when the first softball practice is shortly!

And don't forget...that annual Sons of Italy Scholarship Dance at the American Legion Hall on May 10 at 8:00 pm. They need you to put it over the top!

Got a few calls this week...Seems that there are a few irate citizens about the Rotary taking their park for landscaping, so the kids have no more sand lot to play ball on... Know the Rotary wants to beautify the town, but also know there's no other lot to play ball on now. Do you know where there is one? First, the No Wilmington one disappeared because of Photon etc. Then the Common was landscaped. Now the Rotary Park disappears. Then the High School addition will take care of that one...Anybody got a spare baseball lot in the Church St and Middlesex Ave area, or shall we 'Plant a bush and uproot a boy?' Come on now...Need your thoughts on this one! Even this chick is stuck with it...and when she asks anyone they all give her a blank stare...and Heimlich will be digging to plant those trees shortly now. So, let's hear from you...We need a field for those kids. If you don't play organized ball, you're licked...My side yard is full all the time of boys...now they've drained the D C parking lot down the street into it, and that's under water half of the time. So we need a lot...Maybe Sweetheart will spare their front lawn. Do you suppose? What about that Dick and Joe?

The ten year old Sullivan boy from Birchwood Road (the birdies couldn't remember his first name!) that goes to the Woburn Street School is in the Children's Hospital for tests, thanks to Johnnie Ritchie, we understand...Let's get those cards to him...Will try to give you name and Rm number next week, if we can find out!

Thelma Duda of 17 Stone Street just returned from Honolulu where she visited her son, Barry Fish, who was on his R and R from Vietnam. Isn't it great that there is a common ground to see those boys, and see Hawaii at the same time. (Thanks Barbie!)

June Mantell of Middlesex Ave and Bob Bryant of Washington Ave were wed in the Congo Church on April 19th at 9 pm. Hear that they went to Niagara on their honeymoon and will be living in Derry New Hampshire. Congratulations to that pair and to their grandmother, Eva Brant of Washington Ave.

Those Big Gal Scouts - God Bless Their Souls, sent this Chick a Card from Washington. 'Hi, we visited here today. We thought you would like to hear since you helped us get here. Thanks again, Troops 215 and 354.' (My pleasure, Gals, Glad you had such a good trip and I think it's great that you brought back the flag for the Library, kindness of Brad Morser!)

To all of the friends of Rev Dick Harding, formerly of Wilmington and now of Lexington: Richard has been promoted at the June Methodist Conference! He will be now the District Supervisor for the Western Conference and will be moving to Maple Street in Springfield in this June. Congratulations to you, Dick Guess that 15-year-old prediction really came true...The Conference did have its eye on you!

Friday and Saturday Nights the Juniors are holding their Variety Show in the High School Auditorium at 8 pm for $1.00 per... Too bad that the Juniors and the VFW and the WSCS at the Methodist Church didn't clear with Joan Kritter at Kalendar...Cause they are cutting into each other again and all Varieties on the same nights...Tch Tch...You guys that's what the Kalendar is for!

Saturday AM 7 - 8, the kids are serving a Pancake Breakfast at the Methodist Church...Start your day there or at the May Breakfast at the Congo Church... You can make them both...Meth 7 - 8 am; Congo 7 - 10 am...and that's too bad it wasn't cleared too! Let's get with it now and we'll all be better off, plus not as fat!

You people know Les White? Well, Les is one of the most do-goodingest people I know...Always working to help somebody with something. Les talked with us this week about an Ecumenical Program for the Town that he'd like to get off the ground. That is the one that you put a Fish sign in a window when you need help and other Fish call the help number, and then the Fish on duty will get the help to the person...This is a successful enterprise in other towns, and would seem wonderful for the Wilmingtonites...and we don't care if you have a religion or not, we need you to participate for whatever part you can do...even the telephoning...(Happened to hear a conversation this am, where a lady of the golden generation was asked by another of her generation if she had a place to live yet, or if she had to move...I hope not, was the reply. 'I've had to move twice in six months, and it has cost $250.' So the other then asked if she had called her minister and if he had helped

Well, that folks, is the kind of thing we need, and this Chick happens to know there is plenty of need for it in this here ghetto! (There have been several occasions during the past year, when she has had to arrange emergency help for folks herself!) And that's what Les is about - organizing an emergency Squad of the Ecumenical type - and for the assistance of anyone in an emergency and who will also arrange long range help, if need be! So, Les White is at 29 Marcus Road - 658-8409, or at Avco, we believe - or if you call Coe at the Methodist Church - 658-4519, she'll have Les call you! Now, here's your chance, even if you've never helped anyone before...Let's go...The Fish will show you how! Call him right now, while you think of it...even before you go on to the next item! Thanks a bunch!

Now the fellas:

David White is now at Box 2657 Nellis AFB Las Vegas Nevada 89110, and his mother Barbara says he really likes the TC!

And while talking to No 2 son last Sunday at Ft Jackson, S.C. I could hear him yelling...YOU from Wilmington...You want the paper...and YOU, do you? and he then reports to the phone, 'Hey, Ma, send these guys the paper, will yuh? They're always swiping mine! So, that way we found that Bob Monteiro of Aldrich Rd and Everett Stanley of Marion Street are both at Radio School for ye old US Army at Ft Jackson!

From Joe Beatrice: 'Hi Nancy I received my first copy of the Town Crier since I came to Viet Nam and it was a welcome sight like most of the guys from Wilmington that are overseas, I enjoy your column very much. I've been here almost two months and have ten more to go.

'I plan on spending the rest of my time in the Army in Viet Nam, which will be an additional ten months after the first tour.

'I read your article about the boys in Germany (April 10, 1969) and it was good, so I just thought I'd say hello from Nam. I know most of the guys personally your spoke of.

'Keep up the good work, Nancy Sincerely Sp 4 Joseph Beatrice, HHB 6/56 Artillery, Americal Division, APO San Francisco 96325

(And thanks for your kind words Joe...We really enjoy putting the boys in touch with each other, and the Captain is awfully good to let us have the space! That shows you...Just one of the instances showing how much the guys are backed up by the good old Wilmingtonites! Our love to you all!)

AND, now from Johnnie Deslongchamps in Viet Nam:

'Dear Nosey Nancy (Incidentally this was dated 18 April 69 and received by me on 21 April 69 - how's that for mail?)

'Today is Friday, the 18th of April, and I have been in Viet Nam for 50 days now. I am stationed at the 9th Inf. Div. Base Camp at Dong Tam in the Mekong Delta.

'Here is my correct address: SSG John P Deslongchamps, RA 11447219, A Company, 93rd Engr Bn, APO San Francisco 96370

'We see little action here outside of mortar attacks. A couple of weeks ago they hit our ammo dump, and it made all the papers in the USA. I have met a number of Bostonians, but as yet no one from Wilmington.

'I ran across a bit of information that might be of interest to you and some of your readers.

'My compound is located near the province capital of My Tho. In that capital, there is an orphanage, well, it is mainly an orphanage. There are about 290 young kids there, and over 100 cast off elderly people.

'It is run by catholic nuns, but it does not discriminate at all.

'These kids are mostly girls, because here in the Orient a family feels that when a girl is born, she cannot possibly contribute to the 'whole family' and somewhere they have developed the custom of 'culling' the 'brood'.

'If not for the presence of these good nuns, those beautiful, innocent angels would have probably been killed outright or left to die.

'You nor I cannot possibly imagine what motivation could compel a mother and father to walk up to a door and leave a one or two day old girl lying on the doorstep, but over here it happens in mass!

'The older folk, I don't know the full story on, but I will find out, and when I do, I'll write and tell you.

'I am not writing this letter to ask for assistance for this orphanage, though they do need some; I am writing it so that we who grew up in our Society can look to the heavens and THANK GOD!

'There are more similar stories over here, and anyone who wanders about with a fairly quick eye and an open ear, who cares anything about people, notices them, but due to the limitations of the service, and the red tape required by procedural protocol, we are restricted or barred from doing much of anything.

'By the way, the 9th Infantry Division, through the efforts of the Chaplain at this Base Camp is lending some assistance to the result, but I don't know what is being done about the source.

'Well, I will keep in touch from time to time. Keep up the Prayers for us over here, and for the sake of all that is good, and just support us. We need it! Sincerely yours, SSG John P. Deslongchamps'

'Wow, Johnnie, that letter gave this chick a real jolt, and it really rocks one to think that they are throwing away kids along with shooting up our boys...Please oh please, talk with the Chaplain, or somebody and see what we can do to help...These wonderful citizens of Wilmington need a project right now...They have had a good

Did you know that:

ALCOHOL and BARBITURATES CAN KILL??

A mixture of Alcohol and Barbiturates may cause death. Research on rats shows that the barbiturate interferes with the alcohol-disposing enzyme. When enzyme interference occurs, the depressant effects of both the barbiturate and alcohol are combined. Consequently, a sedative dose of a barbiturate and a slightly intoxicating bit of alcohol can become LETHAL.

Did you know that: YOU NEVER GIVE KAOPECTATE OR BISMUTH for an overdose of EXLAX, etc? Give Charcoal in milk every hour. Give CASTOR OIL, but do not give KAOPECTATE, as it will hold particles in the bowel and action will continue. That is why we stress: KEEP ALL MEDICINE OUT OF REACH OF CHILDREN!

Planning Board

Roads were the principal topic of discussion in the Tuesday night meeting of the Planning Board - projected roads, old roads, and possible roads.

The old road was Dell Drive. A certified mail letter was received from Sleeper & Sleeper, attorneys, of Burlington, with a petition for completion of Dell Drive by the Town of Wilmington. The petition bore the names of 41 signatories, and in addition to saying that the road was in a deplorable condition stated that health hazards existed because of lots 24, 25 and 26, where excavations were halted a year or so past by the Board of Health.

The former owner of the real estate development has gone into bankruptcy, but there is a bank book which the Planning Board had had put up, as a bond. According to the Sleeper and Sleeper letter there is $8,000 in the account, which is with the Dorchester Minot Cooperative Bank.

Mrs. McKie, the chairman, told the board that she had been talking with Fred Arsenault of Dell Drive and that his description of Dell Drive was 'deplorable'.

The only thing that the Planning Board can do at the moment is to have action by the Town Council. Mrs. McKie said he was 'up to his neck' in work, but she would make arrangements to discuss the problem with him, and fill him in on background material, so that he can institute proceedings.

Elliot's Proposals

The board went over a map of Wilmington with Professor Elliot, studying in detail some of his proposed roads in Wilmington, for improvement of traffic.

Also studied was the roads that the City of Woburn is proposing in the north part of that city.

Woburn wants to construct a new Main Street through North Woburn, which is planned to be 100 yards or more east of the present Main St. and would utilize in part the old 'Woburn Loop' track (abandoned) of the Boston & Maine Railroad. The right of way is now the property of the City of Woburn.

As laid out it could continue into Wilmington on that right of way,

NEW ENGLAND BANKARD SYSTEM: The Middlesex Bank is joining 100 New England banks in the formation of the New England Bankard Association, and will be offering Master Charge to their customers in September.

Robert C. Rier, president of the New England Bankard Association is at left, and at right is Joseph P. Healey, president of Middlesex Bank and after crossing Eames Street could rejoin the present Main St. in Wilmington by going on either side of the Greer plant.

It could also be continued up to the Brewster Lumber yard, and there were sketches of carrying it even further, between Avco and Polyvinyl Chemicals.

Woburn is also planning a cross road, to connect Main Street with Interstate 93, which would be southerly from the Stauffer Chemical Plant, and still another road which would connect the cross road with Route 128, and possibly go on into Wilmington to the vicinity of Route 93 and Lowell Street.

Speaking of Lowell Street, Professor Elliot was against having only a 60 foot road. Such a road, he said, would provide only four lanes for traffic, and no parking.

'I think we should have more' Danny Gillis noted that a house is being built on Clark Street, and that another is being planned, both in the projected right-of-way for 'Cain's Road' as he called it, the proposed road from the vicinity of Cain's Garage to Rocco's Restaurant, which would cross Church Street near the Fire Station.

'If we don't act in 1969 that road will be dead' Gillis said.

Improvement of Woburn Street, for traffic was negated by the board, when proposed by Elliot. The board felt that a street which has a major super-highway just beside it, and a school with a lot of children, should so be designed as to encourage the motorists to use the super-highway.

Among the sketches which the professor had made on the chart were:

A new road southerly from Salem Street towards Tewksbury, starting near the Coombs Furniture Co.

Straighten out Forest Street, and then construct a road across country to Hopkins Street, to join the latter near the new Shawsheen School.

A new road from Parker Street over Maple Meadow Brook to the Wildwood School. Likewise a new road upstream from Wildwood St. from Woburn Street to Middlesex Avenue.

The professor had two sketches for alleviating the problems of Everybody experiences tensions. Anxiety and tension are essential functions of living.

But when something worries you, don't bottle it up. This is not healthy.

Confide your worry to some person you can trust, your husband or wife, a good friend, your doctor.

Talking things out helps to relieve the strain, helps you to see your worry in a clearer light, and often helps you to see what you can do about it.

Built up tensions can often lead to poor health.

Special Meeting for the Retarded

There are plans being made for a regional program for the education of the retarded for the communities of Lynnfield, North Reading, Reading, Stoneham, Wilmington, Winchester, and Woburn.

This program will become fully effective in September 1969.

Meetings with parents are being scheduled in each community during the next few weeks. These will involve an insight into the program of SEEM and the opportunity to more fully understand how it relates to the child.

The meeting in Wilmington will be held at the West School on May 6th, at 7:30 pm. Mrs. Marjorie Shaw, Director, will conduct the meeting in conjunction with members of the School Department.

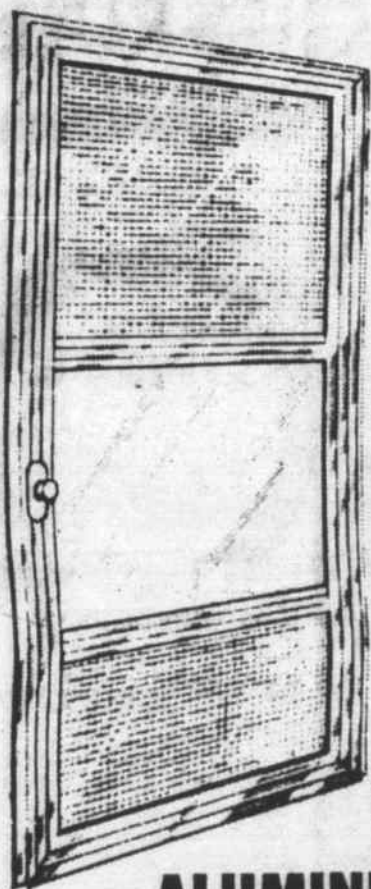

Project SEEM is a program of regionalization for retarded children which involves inter-community bussing for approximately 75 children. The bus routes as are established will necessitate no less than 5, no more than 10, small buses.

The Director of SEEM, Marjorie M Shaw, representing the towns of Lynnfield, North Reading, Reading, Stoneham, Wilmington, Winchester, an Woburn will receive sealed bids until 10:00 am on May 20, 1969, at the Office of the Director at the Junior High School, North Reading, Mass.

PLANNING BOARD (From Page 8)

Burlington Avenue, that is a road on one side, or the other.

One of the roads would utilize Cleveland Avenue, and cross Webster Street at its highest point. The board noted, and chortled that it would go through the home of Selectman Micell.

Elliot told the board that he had been designing new roads for a California community, and one of the roads went right through the Mayor's home, so that this was nothing new. He felt that the better route, however, would be on the southerly side of Burlington Avenue, southerly of Dell Drive and to Main Street near Cain's Garage.

Mrs. McKie pointed out the problem of Andover Street, with all the new firms on the crooked portion of the road, and 'spoiling' the residential land beyond. Professor Elliot agreed with her that it might be wise to have a new road start from Andover Street and go to Route 125 through residential land, joining eventually onto Virginia Road in 'the Lost Colony', near North Reading. He told Mrs. McKie he would consider the idea.

On Chestnut Street the professor felt that it would be wise to do away with the double curve near the Skating Club. He agreed with the Town Engineer, who felt that Butters Row should be extended to meet Chestnut Street at a point that can be described as being 'behind the Hinxman House'.

There was a sketch of a road to be built from Hillside Way and Chestnut Street across to Main Street, but discussion brought out that Roy Mann, assistant to Elliot, had been exploring the idea of a road that would start even further south, and join Main Street near the Town Dump. Mann said that he had been exploring the area, and that the dump was too near Cold Stream Brook. There was discussion of moving it into the old gravel pit near the Woburn line, the one that can be described as being 'on the hill'.

Another thought of Elliot's was having a road from Woburn, to about the Skating Club, instead of the present Chestnut Street - 'if we could get Woburn to agree'.

After the discussion Gillis said that a 'list of priorities' should be drawn up. Elliot agreed, and said he would work on it, dividing the list into three parts - first those roads in which the state could help, secondly those roads that would be the town's responsibility, and thirdly those roads that could be kept in mind, as future real estate developments unfold.

The third discussion was more about a water easement than a road

Leo Barbo and Anthony Tambone of the Barbo development, off Concord Street, appeared to discuss a drainage easement in that property, which will eventually go past Park Street.

The discussion lasted over half an hour, and again, starting at midnight when the Planning Board was alone, it went on for over an hour. Mr. Gillis in particular was unhappy.

Gillis had not realized that the Planning Board had signed plans for the new house lots on Park Street with three different easements, for the future water main to connect Park Street and Fordham Road, and he had some stringent remarks to make about the engineering.

Gillis was adamant. He would not allow any water main to go by easement between the homes, saying that fifteen years from now it might be necessary to dig up those mains, and in the process some home owner could lose his shrubbery. In the end everyone agreed with Gillis.

The drainage easement was proposed to have a large curve, with a 100 foot radius. This too, Gillis did not like.

Several reasons were advanced for having the curve, but Gillis was against it.

The planning board signed a plan so that the developers could start construction on a new $600,000 plant, but they also set up a meeting for Barbo and friends, for 8:30 on May 13th at which time a new proposal would be asked for the drainage and other easements, as modification of the approved plan.

Jackson Brothers

The Jackson Brothers were at the meeting for half an hour with a proposal that the remaining lot of land on Woburn Street, in the Barrows Development could be 'horse-traded' for the land that will be set aside in their new Nichols Street development. The Selectmen are seeking to have the Jackson Brothers put aside an area of land equal to that which would be bought from the town under the Town Meeting vote.

Under the terms of the agreement on the Barrows Estate the lot of land on Woburn Street will revert to the Jackson Brothers in June.

Fred Jackson told the Planning Board that their attorney had found some titles to the Nichols Street property that suggests that they, not the town, owns some of the land over which the Selectmen want to bargain.

The Planning Board agreed that they would discuss the idea, but at 1 am when they finished discussing the Barbo question they were too tired.

Other Business

Professor Elliot told the board that he had just received the tabulation (by IBM) of the 701 Questionnaire. No time had been had to study it, but inspection showed that 869 replies were in favor of Conservancy, and 58 against.

The programming, the professor said, had cost $500, and the actual running cost was about $60.

Mrs. McKie was re-elected the chairman of the Planning Board, with Bill Hanlon Secretary, and Bill Hooper elected to a new office, that of Fiscal Director, to keep an account of the accounts, because of the increasing scope of the board's budget.

Hooper will continue to be the 'lison man' with the Board of Appeals.

Gillis spoke up to tell Mrs. McKie that he considered that she had done an exceptionally fine job as chairman during the preceding year.

The board voted to send a transcript of zoning discussions to the Attorney General, as had been agreed to between the Selectmen and the Town Clerk.

There is to be a meeting of Region 5A of the Planning Boards in Lynnfield on June 2nd.

The board discussed briefly the School Committee discussion on High School, new or extension.

They all felt that construction costs were too high.

Gillis: Let's get back to the square or round schools - somewhere along the line we have to make schools which will not just be monuments to engineers!

Mrs. McKie agreed, and pointed out that the future collective bargaining with teachers would now probably be on getting better quarters for the teachers' use.

In Wilmington, she agreed, the facilities for the teachers, in the High School, were 'horrendous'. 'They just have two little rooms - I wouldn't want to work there!'

The board sent a memorandum to the Board of Selectmen hoping that the old library would not be destroyed, but held over for use as an historic building of the town. The vote was unanimous.

The board voted to send a letter to the Committee on Transportation, in the State House, with copies to Senator MacKenzie and Rep. Cain, asking that the vote on Interstate Route 95, south of Boston, be delayed until there was a determination, independently, of the feasibility. This was in response to a letter from the Neponset Conservation Commission.

BASEBALL
Senior Left-Hander Dave O'Connell pitched the Wildcats to their second victory with a masterful four-hitter. Beaver walked four and struck out seven Dracut batters in the 2-0 win last Wednesday. The Wildcats scored their runs in the second inning as Harrison and Baldwin reached on consecutive errors by the Middies third baseman. Gerry Land singled home, and after Stewart struck out O'Connell bunted home Baldwin with the second and final run of the game.

On Friday afternoon, the Rangers of Methuen invaded Wilmington High and promptly scored three runs off Dan Walls in the initial inning of play. A base on balls an error, two singles, and a sacrifice fly netted the runs. The Rangers picked up two more runs in the fifth inning on a single and two errors. Meanwhile, the Wildcats were unable to solve the slants of Bruce Blaney of the Rangers pitching staff. Two errors, two wild pitches, and a base on balls surrounded by Mark Drugan's single led to the only three runs the Wildcats were to score in the 5-3 loss to Methuen. Blaney struck out thirteen and walked only one in his route going affair. Walls struck out nine and walked seven as he absorbed his second loss.

Monday the Wildcats traveled to the Lions Den in Chelmsford and lost 6-2. Once again the opposition scored early and the Wildcats were forced to play catch up. O'Connell started for our side, but in three innings of pitching, he gave up five runs and eight hits while walking 2 and striking out 2. O'Connell now has an identical won and loss record to Wall 1-2.

The Wildcats scored their only runs in the fifth on an error and consecutive singles by Tom Mirosoia, playing his second varsity game, and senior co-captain Ed Gillis.

HELP SHAPE THE FUTURE - PALAVER

To Parents, Students, and Teachers:

The Wilmington School Committee has set up an Advisory Committee on Human Relations - consisting of students, teachers, and townspeople - to suggest and initiate programs at all educational levels designed to lead to better understanding. This year, an Adult Education Course in Social Relations has been started. Next year there will be two elective courses concerning minority groups in the High School Curriculum.

The Advisory Committee needs a counsel of teachers, students, and other citizens of Wilmington about the gaps in inter-group understanding and the best ways for the schools to encourage unity.

A better way to understanding is to talk with each other.

You are invited to join in a Palaver, informal discussion of these issues, at the home of Mrs Galina Wood, 321 Salem St on Monday, May 5 at 7:30 pm

Several members of the High School English and Social Studies Departments will be at the first Palaver.

Come and be heard.

The Palaver Committee

Miss Judith Ann Carney, daughter of Mrs Loyd and the late Loyd Carney of 288 Shawsheen Avenue Wilmington became the bride of Edward J Langone, son of Mr and Mrs Stephen A Langone of Nassau Avenue Wilmington in a Saturday morning ceremony on March 29th at St. Dorothy's Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr Loyd J Carney. Rev. Joseph Leahy united the couple in marriage. The organist was Mr William Noll, and Mr. James O'Keefe was the soloist.

Miss Carney's bridal gown was fashioned in Peau de Sole along traditional lines, and featured long tapered sleeves, an Empire waistline, and a line skirt. The bodice and skirt were appliqued in Chantilly lace, as was the detachable train, which fell Watteau fashion from the shoulders. The illusion veil was of elbow length, and she carried a cascade of roses and shepanotis.

The Matron of Honor was Mrs Maureen Munroe of Tewksbury, and the Bridesmaids were Miss Gall VanGeyte of Topsfield, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary O'Connell and Miss Eileen Bradley both of Wilmington.

Mrs Munroe was in a Peacock gown of chiffon over linen, accented with satin, and an empire waist and long sleeves, with matching head piece.

The bridesmaids were in matching gowns of aqua, and carried cascades of aqua poms and baby's breath.

Stephen J Langone, brother of the groom, of Wilmington, served as his Best Man, and the ushers were Mr Carroll M Berg of Marshfield, Mr Robert J Sullivan of Malden and Mrs Edward Traywick of Chelmsford.

A reception was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Wilmington after the ceremony. Miss Stephanie Langone, a sister of the groom, was in charge of the Guest Book.

The mother of the bride, for the reception line, chose a powder blue coat and dress ensemble, with matching accessories, and a pink orchid.

Mrs Langone, the mother of the groom, was in a yellow two piece dress, with matching accessories, and wore a purple orchid.

The bride, for her wedding trip chose a pink coat and dress ensemble, with black accessories, with an orchid corsage chosen from the bridal bouquet. The trip was to Washington, DC and the couple are now at home in Chelmsford.

Both Mr and Mrs Langone are graduates of Wilmington High School. She has been employed at Ling Electronics in Wilmington, and he is a Marine Corps veteran of the Viet Nam conflict, and is now a student at Northern Essex College in Haverhill.
